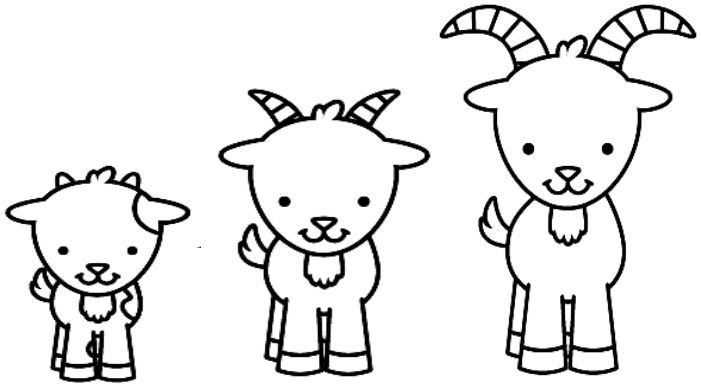
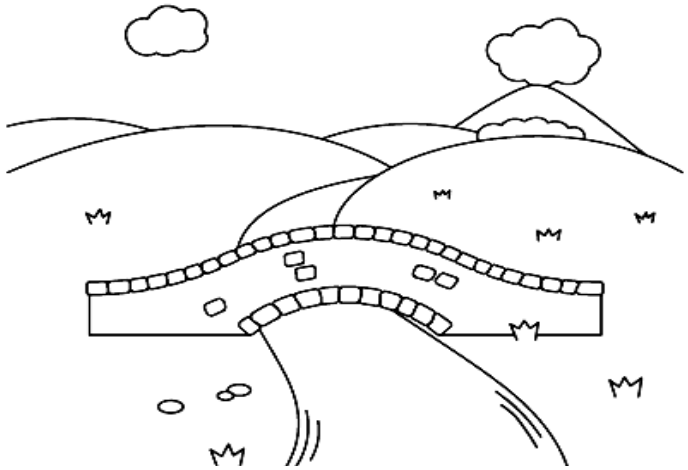
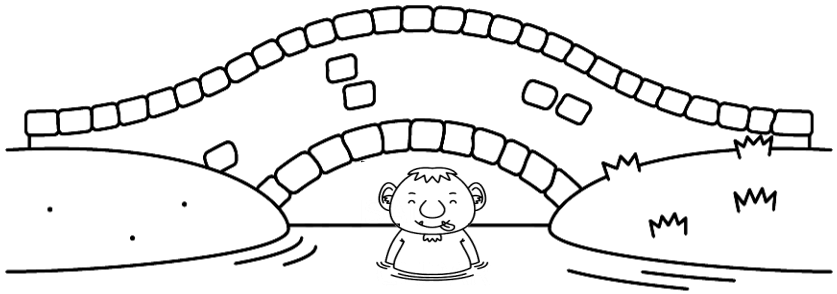
The Three Billy Goats Gruff



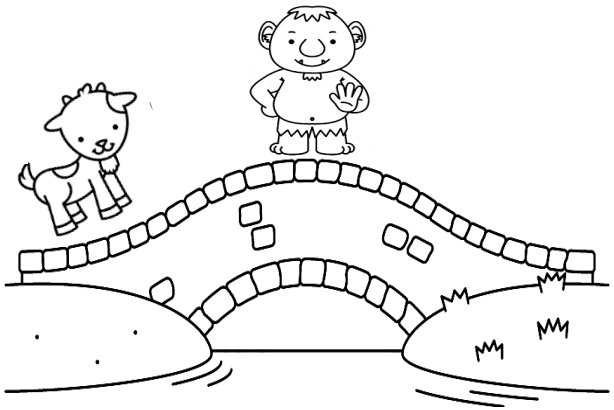
Once upon a time, there were three billy goats who lived in a valley in the hills.



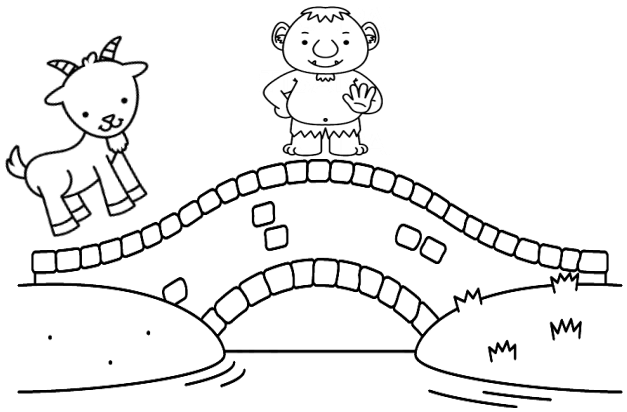
One day, they spotted a field of grass on the other side of the valley and decided to make their way across to it.



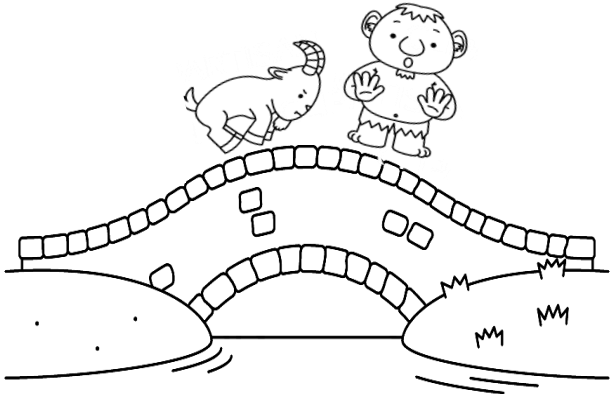
To get there, they had to cross a bridge that went over a river. But a troll lived under the bridge and he would gobble up anyone who tried to cross.



The goats had a plan. The smallest goat started to walk across the bridge. The troll wanted to eat him but he told him his brother was about to cross and he would be a much bigger feast! So the troll waited.



The medium-sized goat started to cross. The troll wanted to eat him too but he told him his big brother was about to cross and he was much bigger than him! So the troll waited.



Finally, the biggest goat started to cross. The troll tried to eat him, but instead, the goat butted the troll with his horns. The troll floated away down the river and was never seen again. The goats lived happily ever after!
